

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION OF PARTNERS AND PROJECTS

The Agrónomos Sin Fronteras Foundation understands a local counterpart to be the organization established in the country where a project is to be implemented, which will assume the responsibility of identifying, implementing and providing continuity to the project in collaboration with the Agrónomos Sin Fronteras Foundation.

The main criteria for selecting a counterpart will be:

- a) Social implantation and knowledge of the reality where it wants to work. This implementation may be in a specific area or in the whole country. (50%)
- b) Technical capacity demonstrated by experience in carrying out other projects similar to the one proposed. (30%)
- c) Management capacity to carry out projects of similar size and complexity. (20%)

First contact with the counterpart

This may be made by the person in charge of the Direction or Management, the President or a member of the Board of Trustees. In this first meeting, a presentation of the Agrónomos Sin Fronteras Foundation will be made, and the latest Annual Report of the Agrónomos Sin Fronteras Foundation will be handed over, as well as the institutional document on its Mission, Vision and Values.

All documentation on the counterparty that is available and considered relevant shall be collected.

a) Collecting data on the counterpart partner

A brief questionnaire from the Agrónomos Sin Fronteras Foundation will be sent through the person in charge of the Directorate or Management to collect the information considered most relevant to the organization. It should be sent to the counterpart organization.

b) Decision of acceptance

The Board of Trustees of the Foundation will evaluate the information collected and make a decision on whether or not to accept the organization as a potential Local Partner.

c) Request for needs

In case of being affirmative, the potential Local Partner will be sent a Form where the most relevant information about the possible actions to be carried out together will be collected.

Programming of calls for proposals and formulation of the project

Once the action and the financier to which it will be presented have been selected, the project will be formulated together with the local partner.

a) Approval of the project and signing of the agreement

Once the project has been submitted and if approved, a financing agreement will be signed to implement the project. This financing agreement will contain all the most relevant aspects to be able to carry out the project and execute it.
